F: 57(15)/94/UD/1948-1977 MARCH 4, 1994

ORDER

1. WHEREAS one quarter of Delhi's population resides in less than 6% of the total area of the capital in Trans Yamuna Area resulting in phenomenal density of population and haphazardous growth of unplanned building activity and proliferation of substandard areas as compared to the other areas of Delhi.

2. WHEREAS immense pressure has been placed on the existing infrastructural facilities which are totally inadequate and the gap between the increasing demand for civic amenities and the actual provision of the same has been widening as compared to the other areas of Delhi.

3. WHEREAS the topography of Trans Yamuna area causes large areas to be water logged following even the slightest rainfall, and natural drainage, because of absence of gradient, is a serious problem and which requires special and urgent measures as compared to the other areas of Delhi.

(22) 4. NOW THEREFORE the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi appoints a Board to be known as Trans Yamuna Development Board consisting of
